Chantal has been working as a Mental Health Leader at the Conseil des écoles publiques de l'est de l'Ontario (CEPEO) since 2015. She has been a Program Consultant at the Centre for Addiction and Mental Health (CAMH) for over 15 years. She is especially interested in issues affecting children, youth, prevention, mental health promotion, equity, and education and knowledge exchange.

She sits on several local, regional and provincial committees that address the mental health and addiction needs of Francophones. Chantal has also worked as a responder and educator at Maison Fraternité. She obtained her Master's degree in Criminology and a Bachelor's degree in Sociology from the University of Ottawa in 1996.
