

Luc Fortin

Secretary

A political scientist and seasoned manager, Dr. Luc Fortin is passionate about Canadian and international politics. He has worked in the House of Commons of the Parliament of Canada for more than 25 years, as Deputy Principal Clerk, Procedural Clerk, Committee Clerk and as Manager in several directorates including Committees, Office Research, and International and Interparliamentary Relations. As a procedural advisor to the Speakers of the House of Commons, he has skillfully navigated among elected officials of the various Canadian political parties to promote parliamentary debates for the benefit of all Canadians.

Luc is also very familiar with the needs and aspirations of the younger generation of Canadians, having taught part-time courses in Canadian politics at the School of Political Studies at the University of Ottawa for over thirty years. Deeply interested in the well-being of his community, he has served as President of the Club Richelieu Vanier-Laurier, as Secretary of the Association Champlain Fondateur, and as a Director on the Board of Maison Fraternité for 7 years. Originally from Bedford in the Eastern Townships (Quebec), Luc completed a Bachelor's degree and a Master's degree in Political Science at the University of Ottawa.

He then completed doctoral studies at Carleton University in Ottawa. His program and doctoral thesis are in the fields of Political Science and Public Administration.
