

Dedicated to public service and to her community, Amanda Simard is a former Member of Provincial Parliament in Ontario (2018-2022), Chair of the International Network of Young Parliamentarians of the Assemblée parlementaire de la Francophonie (2019-2022), and Municipal Councillor (2014-2018). Prior to her election as an MPP, she worked at the Parliament of Canada for eight years. Amanda is a graduate of the University of Ottawa's Faculty of Law (Juris Doctor), and is a recipient of the Queen Elizabeth II's Diamond Jubilee Medal.